

Dear FCC,

Please do not lift the cross-ownership ban on news stations. It's in the public's best interests to see a variety of news reports as well as a variety of views from each news station and newspaper. If the ban was removed it could seriously jeopardize the quality of newscasting and reporting in our nation's media. Please consider what is in the best interests of the people, not the corporations.

Nation Activist